THANKSGIVING.

Extraordinary Inducements Made for the Feast Day at the Peoples Warehouse.

For tomorrow forenoon, Thursday, November 24, Thanksgiving, our store will be open until 12 o'clock, only, one-half a day's trading, into which we want to crowd a whole day's business.

Some of you perhaps know of our table linens. We will make, for this Thanksgiving forenoon, a discount of 25 per cent to 33 1-3 per cent on every yard of table linen in the house, which means that table linen regularly worth 25 cents will be sold at 18 1-2 cents per yard; regular 45 cent value will be sold for 33 cents per yard; regular 50 cent value will be sold for 37 cents per yard, and so on through the line. Napkins will be reduced in the same proportion.

Women's lace collars, for this Thanksgiving forenoon, will be sold at one-half price, just for this single occasion. They range in price from 75 cents to $5 each and the 75 cent lace collars will be sold for 40 cents; $1 lace collars will be sold for 50 cents; $1.50 lace collars will be sold for 75 cents; $2 lace collars will be sold for $1; $3 lace collars will be sold for $1.50; $4 lace collars will be sold for $2, and $5 lace collars will be sold for $2.50.

Perhaps you know something about our kid gloves, and, perhaps, you will want a pair to wear to the football game or to wear out walking or calling. Our $1 gloves will be 50 cents; our $1.25 gloves will be 88 cents; our $1.50 gloves will be $1.22; our $2 gloves will be $1.65.

And all the time we hope that your Thanksgiving will be a pleasant one and that it will leave many pleasant memories.

THE PEOPLES WAREHOUSE.

The fruitgrowers of the Lewiston are "getting together" and will probably organize a fruitgrowers' trust similar to California organizations of fruitgrowers.

SHOOTING EVENTS

GREAT DAY OUT AT THE TOURNAMENT GROUNDS.

Large Number of Participants and Spectators—Big Turkey Shoot on the Side That Is Attracting Much Attention—Costs Three Dollars to Take the Eight Events, With a Total of 100 Targets—Complete List of Events and Prizes Is Given Below.

Innocent bluerocks are perishing today, keg after keg of Dupont is being exploded in its smokeless way, records and good intentions are going to pieces in chunks, and the air round the traps of the Pendleton Sportsmen's Association traps is blue, but not because of shattered targets, the burning powder, but on account of the broken hopes. It is the annual Thanksgiving shoot of the club, and they are there; great and small, crafty nimrod, budding sportsman and trembling beginner.

More than a hundred persons are gathered at the target ranges south of town participating in or witnessing the events. There are eight regular events being shot off, and a grand live turkey shoot on the side.

In the regular contest the entrance is $3 for the eight events, with a total of 100 targets. To the person making the lowest average score H. J. Stillman will present a Powers rod. A list of the other prizes follows:

Event No. 1.—10 targets; 30c entrance. Prize, one bottle Mumm's Extra Dry, by George Hayes.
Event No. 2.—10 targets; 30c entrance. Prize, Lewis and Clark gold dollar, by First National bank.
Event No. 3.—10 targets; 30c entrance. Prize, 100 steel engraved cards, with plate, by the Tribune.
Event No. 4.—10 targets; 30c entrance. Prize, big turkey, by G. R. Demott & Co.
Event No. 5.—15 targets; entrance 45c. Prize, corduroy hunting shirt, by Peoples Warehouse.
Event No. 6.—25 targets; entrance 75c. Prize, case R. Bond or Wilson whisky, by F. X. Schempp.
Event No. 7.—10 targets; entrance 30c. Prize, one box (50) La Integridad cigars, by Tallman & Co.
Event No. 8.—10 targets; entrance 30c. Prize $7.50 worth dental work, by Dr. White.

All the events in the regular contest are handicaps. The shoot began at 10 o'clock this morning, and will close this afternoon.

Idaho's fruit area amounts to 45,000 acres, 10,000 acres of which have not been inspected this year.
